About the CFFCM Cane Rod Makers School

In 2001, CFFCM trustee, Dr. Steven Cohen identified a need in the angling community for a museum-based school for cane rod making. The Catskill Fly Fishing Center & Museum took on that initiative in June 2003 in partnership with the East Coast Cane and Rod Makers, to form the Catskill Rod Makers. This group has revived the fine art of cane rod making and the CFFCM serves as the steward of this noble cause by hosting their annual gathering held the second weekend in September. Join the museum in 2009 for the return of the CFFCM Cane Rod Makers School to be offered the week of June 19-24. Space is limited and the class is sure to sell out!

CFFCM Cane Rod Makers School

The Catskill Fly Fishing Center & Museum will be conducting it's highly successful Cane Rod Makers School at our facilities located along the Willowemoc Creek in Livingston Manor, New York during the week of June 19-24, 2009. This is a unique opportunity to learn from the best and create a cane rod to use and cherish for years to come! Instructors for this year's program are: Kathy Scott, Dave Van Burgel, and Art Port. All tools and materials are provided for you.

PLEASE NOTE:

Class space is limited

Tuition for the Cane Rod Makers School is $1,350 per person* which includes all materials and tools, bunk house sleeping accommodations, breakfast & lunch daily, and printed class documents. Evening fishing in the Willowemoc – the museum's front yard – is encouraged as the hatches are at their peak during the week class is in session. Class will start promptly at 9:00 AM, Saturday 6/20 and end Wednesday afternoon 6/24. Students are encouraged to arrive on Friday Night for an informal pre class presentation.

(*NOTE: CFFCM Members receive $150 tuition discount.)

If you are interested in this year's program, please complete the attached application and reserve your space with a deposit of $400 with the balance due on June 3rd. Please note if you will be arriving the evening prior to class so that we will have housing available. For additional information, contact CFFCM at 845-439-4810 or email flyfish@catskill.net.
