

Summerfest and Anglers Market
Now TWO DAYS
August 8 & 9, 2009 8:30AM – 4:00 PM

Livingston Manor, NY The Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum's (CFFCM) most popular and well-attended event for 27 years has been the Summerfest and Anglers Market. If it is fly fishing related you will find it on the pond field of the CFFCM on August 8 & 9, 2009. Collectible Rods, Reels, Flies, Materials, Sporting Accessories, Books, treasures and 'What-nots' will be available from one of the most diverse groups of vendors in the USA. Hours are 8:30 AM- 4:00 PM each day. Vendors include: The Classic Fly Fisherman, Jerry Girard, Chesapeake Rods & Reels, Kevin Storms Wildlife Art, Frank Polanish, Mike Canonico, Dave Brandt, Walter O'Neil, Fireside Angler, Badger Creek Fly Tying, George Guba, Lang's Auction, Bob Mead, Bruce Corwin, Grauer's Fine Fly Tackle, Kiri Custom Crafted Bamboo and Steve Starrantino's sporting book blow out on Sunday, August 9th.

Visitors are welcome to bring their unknown treasures to the Treasure Tackle Road Show for identification and insurance appraisals by noted authority Bob Selb.

As a result of a keen interest by vendors, this event has been expanded to two days. This will be good for customers allowing them to return for the item they did not buy. Like all antique, yard sales, and flea markets..."I should have bought that, I'll go back tomorrow". It is like a second chance offer.

Vendor Space still available for both Anglers Market and Jubilee Day. If you or your organization would like to participate, please call 845-439-4810.
