

Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum
30th Anniversary, May 28, 2011

For Immediate Release.
Call: 845-439-4810

May 23, 2011

Livingston Manor, NY. On Saturday May 28, 2011 The Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum will celebrate its 30th Anniversary and Annual Meeting.

A full day of activities and events will culminate with the annual fund raising dinner and auction (see below) to be held at Kings Catering, Livingston Manor, NY.

10:00 AM, The Annual Members Meeting will be held in the Paul Dahlie Education Building. President Miriam Stone will officiate with a review of the past year, followed by officer reports and the election of trustees.

Also at 10:00 AM, World Fly Tying Ambassador, Ted Patlen will host a fly tying demonstration in the museum and will later be joined by Lee Weil as the guest fly tyer.

1:00 PM- Misako Ishismura, co author of TENKARA, will hold a book signing in the museum until 2 PM.

The Hardy Bros. Cup bamboo rod casting competition will resume from 1:00 PM - 4 :00 PM in the lower field. Competitors are required to bring their own bamboo fly rod with reel lined with a WF or DT Floating fly line and 7.5' or less leader. This will be the last time to compete before the August 6 competing schedule and award.

5:30 Cocktails and Silent auction begins at Kings

7:00 PM MC Jim Callahan will welcome guests at the 30th Annual Dinner

8:30 Live Auction of 20+ lots. To include: * A special casting lesson for two with Joan Wulff, * A 1:1 day on the Delaware with Al Cauuci, * A 1:1 afternoon fishing the Potatuck Club Water in CT with Member Keith Fulsher * Trips for two to Chile or the Restigouche River, * The Catskill Rodmakers Gathering fly rod, * Fishing for Two on the De Bruce Club Water with Anthony "Willowemoc" Magardino, * Two nights in the Catskills with dinner, New equipment, * Original art works, and...see all details at www.cffcm.net

For more information call 845-439-4810