

Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum

Important PRESS RELEASE

October 30, 2007

For Immediate Release or before November 10, 2007

Contact: CFFCM 1-845-439-4810 Erin Phelan

Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum has their first off site fly fishing show.

Livingston Manor, NY: On November 10 & 11, 2007 The Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum will hold their first show for the fly fishing community at the Ethan Allen Inn in Danbury, CT. This full service fly show will feature some of America's most recognized fly tyers and fly fishing celebrities including Keith Fulsher, Jay 'fishy' Fullum, Fran Verdoliva, Floyd Franke, and others providing programs and seminars on the show floor. A select and diverse group of vendors will be on hand with an array of fishing and sporting collectibles, fly tying materials, and fine fly fishing tackle and accessories. This show is open to the public and they are encouraged to bring their fishing finds from attics and basements to the Fishing Antique Roadshow that will be identified by the best appraisers in the fly fishing world. A live auction will be held on Saturday evening at 7PM.

The Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum is non-profit organization dedicated to preserving the past, protecting the present and promoting the future of fly fishing.

Daily admission is $10 with all proceeds to benefit the Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum.