Livingston Manor, NY On February 11, 2012 Fifty Fly Tyers will informally gather and shed their cabin fever in a fly tying frenzy at the Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum (CFFCM) at 9:00 AM. Now in its 7th year, Fly Fest continues to grow and brings out the best in fly tying. Fly Fest is a great day to spend with friends and share in the day. As always a wide array of talent and tyers will be on hand to help you learn new patterns. Sponsored by local Roscoe retailer Catskill Flies and Classic Trout.com, and supported by SparseGreyMatter.com. Visitors are encouraged to bring their tying gear and join in the fun.

The 4th Annual IceCapades was initiated by the late Jan Weido and his friends from the Mid Hudson Trout Unlimited to coincide with Fly Fest at the CFFCM has been cancelled due to lack of safe ice on the pond. This was a wonderful event designed to teach families the pleasures of catching fish through the ice. This event has grown to be a favorite among visitors to the CFFCM.

Fly Fest and the Jan Weido IceCapades are the CFFCM kick off for the new year. There are more events to follow. The 2012 Activity and Event Calendar can be found at www.cffcm.net and daily news on www.facebook.com/cffcm
