During the dog days of summer anglers will once again meet on August 6 & 7, at the Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum for the 29th Annual Summerfest-Anglers Market- Jubilee Weekend. This annual event has grown to be the largest outdoor show and flea market for outdoors and fly fishing collectibles, classic tackle, and accessories.

In continuing this growth, Hardy/Greys North America will join in this annual event with the Hardy Bros. Cup, a bamboo rod casting competition on August 6 from 9AM-? completion. This event is open to anyone with a bamboo fly rod 9' length and under. Casters are required to bring their own reel with a WF or DT floating fly line and a 7.5' maximum length leader. Contestants will have several practice casts before laying down two distance casts and an accuracy cast to be tallied for points. This exciting competition will certainly bring out some interesting bamboo rods and surely some interesting casters. Hardy/Greys will provide valuable prizes for the top three finishers and guarantee fun for all at a BBQ provided that evening. __In addition to all of the excitement of classic tackle, the Hardy Bros. Cup, Sunday the classic tackle and flea market resumes and a special Birthday celebration will recognize Agnes Van Put's 95th year, along with others in the fly fishing community. This is one of the largest social gatherings in the world of fly fishing. Everyone is welcome.

Its all about fly fishing.
