

3rd Annual Cane Rod Makers School

The Catskill Fly Fishing Center & Museum will be conducting the 3rd annual Cane Rod Makers School at our facilities located along the Willowemoc Creek in Livingston Manor, New York during the week of June 19-23, 2006. This is a unique opportunity to learn from the best and create a cane rod to use and cherish for years to come! Instructors for this year's program are: Ron Barch, Dave Van Burgel and Kathy Scott, Art Port, and Bill Harms. All tools and materials are provided for you.

PLEASE NOTE: The class is limited to a maximum of 8 students.

Tuition for the 3rd annual Cane Rod Makers School is $1,300 per person* which includes all materials and tools, sleeping accommodations in the Education Dormitory, breakfast & lunch daily, and written materials on the rods to be created. Evening fishing in the Willowemoc – the museum's front yard – is encouraged as the hatches are at their peak during the week class is in session. Students also have the option of staying on through the weekend after class to fish the many Catskill rivers at our doorstep. NOTE: CFFCM Members receive $100 tuition discount.

If you are interested in this year's program, please complete the attached application and reserve your space with a minimum deposit of $250 with the balance due on June 5th. Please note if you will be arriving the evening prior to class so that we will have housing available. For additional information, contact CFFCM at 845-439-4810 or email flyfish@catskill.net.
